

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA and the City of Tuskegee

It's no secret that in our community social and peer pressures force boys to make personal choices that have consequences they are not ready to handle-choices that can frighten, overwhelm, or confuse them; choices they might not be prepared to make. Sometimes making the wrong choice can damage self-esteem or endanger health, safety, or well-being. Some of the choices have serious consequences. But it doesn't have to be this way.

There is a very special movie called "Troop 491: The Adventures of the Muddy Lions." Told by an African-American first-time filmmaker, the movie's powerful story, which was inspired by the filmmaker's experiences, contains messages that resonate with today's youth.

Please join us for a special event in Tuskegee Municipal Complex Auditorium at 6:30 pm on Thursday, August 20th for the film showing. FREE ADMISSIONS

About the movie: Troop 491: The Adventures of the Muddy Lions is the story of Tristan, a boy coping with life in the inner-city projects. His mother enrolls him in scouting an effort to keep him off the streets. But when Tristan witnesses a homicide, a local thug demands his silence. Now he must learn, with the help of his new friends, that doing the right thing isn't always easy. Will he follow the code of the streets or the code of the Boy Scouts?
